Cultural Resource Management for Undergraduate Majors in Anthropology

Undergraduate majors who are interested in a career in Cultural Resource Management may consider following this course plan, which satisfies most of the requirements listed for majors.

| Core Courses | Workshop (8 credits): Archaeological Field School (Anth 408) or equivalent
Cultural Resource Management (4 credits): Anth 449 |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Elective Courses | Two courses from each of the following areas:
Cultural Anthropology (8 credits): Native North Americans (Anth 320), Hunters and Gatherers (Anth 330), Anthropology of Tourism (Anth 410), Field Methods in Cultural Anthropology (Anth 417), Historical Anthropology (Anth 455)
Regional Prehistory (8 credits): Archaeology of the Caribbean (Anth 310), Oregon Archaeology (Anth 344), Northwest Coast Archaeology (Anth 442), North American Archaeology (Anth 443)
Method and Theory (8 credits): Environmental Archaeology (Anth 310), Lithic Analysis (Anth 355), Human Osteology Laboratory (Anth 366), Bioarchaeology (Anth 410), Archaeobotany (Anth 410), The Anthropology Museum (Anth 450), Zooarchaeology (Anth 471)
Practical Applications and Special Problems (8 credits): Cultural Resource Management Archaeology Internship (Anth 406), Practicum in Cultural Resource Management Archaeology (Anth 409) |
| Recommended Courses in Other Departments | Geography: GIScience I (GEOG 481), GIScience II (GEOG 482), Remote Sensing I (GEOG 485), Remote Sensing II (GEOG 486), Advanced Geographic Information Systems (GEOG 491), Advanced Cartography (GEOG 493), Geographic Data Analysis (GEOG 495)
Historic Preservation: Introduction to Historic Preservation (AAAP 411), National Register Nomination (AAAP 410), Historical Archaeology and Preservation (AAAP 410), Historic Survey and Inventory Methodology (AAAP 451) |