

Leaf Litter

Keeping students informed of current news, upcoming events, and projects within AAA, the region and the profession of Landscape Architecture

November 2005

UO ASLA Mission: To further the general professional development of UO Landscape Architecture students and the specific professional development goals of the ASLA Committee and membership

The Drop

Membership

Join or Renew All Month!

Your membership includes:

- 1 year subscription to Landscape Architecture Magazine
- Access to MEMBERS-ONLY sections of the ASLA web site
- LAND Online- the ASLA biweekly online newsletter
- The Student Insider- the national student online newsletter
- Joblink- Access to ASLA's online resume posting service at the low rate of $10
- Entry into the 2006 Student Awards
- 1 year Associate Membership if you apply within 6 months of graduation

Flash!

ASLA WVS November Lecture
Nov. 17, 2005 12-1pm
LA231

"Industrial Ruins: Gathering Grift for a Cautionary Tale"
Liska Chan, Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture

"Bridging Landscape and Architecture: Natural Systems and Form" Roxi Thoren, Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture

November Brown Bag Informative lunch in LA 231

Monday, Nov. 21
Drafting a Portfolio and Archiving Your Work

Learn how to begin the process of designing and creating a professional portfolio by effectively storing your documents for future use

UO ASLA Student Chapter meets weekly on Mondays @ 12 in LA405A

Flutter in and see what the wind is blowing around

Get Involved

Shadow Mentor Day
January 30, 2006

Oregon, Seattle.....and Beyond?
If you are interested in going to San Francisco
E-mail Tiina at medfordbeavers@juno.com

Festival of Flowers 2006

- Design Charette in Feb. 2006
- Guide Design into Reality for credit Spring 2006
- Help with the Installation in June 2006

For more Information visit us on the web at:
<http://www.uoregon.edu/~asla>

