entered the second language, that it be carried sufficiently to make attainment in it thorough, so that for this purpose, this course like the others, course be continued through four (4) years of study work, and that graduates thereof be entitled to the degree of A.B.,

Third, That your Hon. Body consider the propriety of asking the Legislature for such change in the existing laws, as shall authorize the Faculty to examine and classify students at the time of entrance to the University.

Fourth, That your Hon. Body authorize the Faculty to make all language study, except Latin, an elective, our courses, elective, only requiring that two such languages be essential to each course.

Fifth, That your Hon. Body petition the Legislature to enact that all graduates of the University of Oregon shall be entitled to certificates to teach in the Public Schools of Oregon without further examination and to scholarship.

Very respectfully submitted,

John J. Goldsby, Sec. Faculty.
