Eugene City June 7, 1887

To the Hon. Board of Regents—Gentlemen: During the year 1877-78, the University was in a very unsatisfactory condition financially, and the faculty voluntarily recommended to the Board and to the members of the Board residing in Eugene City, that their salaries be reduced twenty per cent (20%), to relieve the financial stress under which the Institution was at that time struggling.

The members of the faculty, at the same time, received assurance that the salaries would be restored. Wherein the finances would warrant the same.

The present Faculty feeling that the salaries are too low, that the finances are in a favorable condition, respectfully petition your Hon.
