direction. The motion carried.

The report of the committee on the revision of rules relating to credit for work in Summer School was adopted as follows:

Summer School, Extra Hours
on account of

College Credit for High School Work.

Check of Mrs. Luckey

"To the President and Faculty of the University:

Your committee appointed to revise the wording of the regulations governing extra hours, in so far as they relate to work in the Summer School, recommends the following modified form of the second section (adopted Sept. 23, 1907):

Second:- Students admitted to classes above the Freshman, but having deficiencies, may be allowed to carry an average of thirty-four semester hours per year, excluding work in the Summer School (if any), but not more than eighteen hours may be carried during any one semester. In case this provision will not admit of graduation within the time proposed, no extra work shall be allowed, and work done in the Summer School shall not constitute a claim for extra hours. Permission to carry extra hours shall not be granted under this provision to students whose deficiencies result from failures.

The following report was adopted:
"To the Board of Regents,
University of Oregon.

The faculty of the University of Oregon in relation to the matter of applying for the benefit of the Carnegie pension fund for the University of Oregon would respectfully suggest: 1. That a pension system is desirable in the interests of efficiency. 2. Inasmuch as a State pension fund for the University is not feasible at this time, it recommends that the Board ask the Legislature of Oregon to have this University placed on the list of institutions to whom the benefits of the fund accrue.

(Signed) F.G.Young
H.C.Howe
H.D.Sheldon."

It was moved by Prof. Young, reporting the action of the committee appointed for the purpose, that the length of time for removing incompletes and conditions be made one semester.

The following recommendation was adopted by the faculty:

"June 20, 1908.

"To the Faculty:

Since according to the report of the President of the University, Miss Carrie Hovey, now Mrs. Burden, was graduated from the University School of Music with degree in 1894, and since through an oversight on the part of the Secretary the degree was not written on the diploma, I recommend that the faculty order that the degree "Bachelor of Music" be now inscribed on the diploma.

(signed) Irving M. Glen,
Dean of the University
School of Music."

The matter of the amount of credit to be granted to members of this year's debating team was referred to a committee of three, consisting of Profs. Sheldon and Young and Dr. Gilbert.

The number of the committee appointed to investigate the number of athletic contests was increased from three to five and its powers were enlarged to include oratory, debate and all social events. Report to be made next fall.

The faculty adjourned.
