

Our next meeting of the internal governance committee is Thursday, 10/29 at 9:30 in the Lewis Lounge. There are a number of points for discussion:

- Overview of timeline for process over next 6–8 months
- Developing website that will provide information to the broader community and provide opportunity for feedback/input and questions/answers
 - Vetting process for information to appear on website
- Splitting into writing groups to provide 1–2 page overview of 3–5 possible alternative models of internal governance
 - Goal of having drafts completed prior to 11/11 Senate meeting.
 - Include pros and cons for each alternative
 - Posting to website to start broader discussion
- What are some possible alternatives?
 - faculty senate and university senate
 - statutory faculty assembly and university senate
 - university assembly and faculty senate
