A Day Gone By

John J. Donovan

Verse
An' sometimes seems she's there to stay She's got to find the answer to
I know she feels it ought to be
That she'll get here a day too soon

Now I know, but right now,

Refrain
Yes, the stars that shine at night,
Are a cold and lonely sight.
She'd say: "John, well we were wrong you know it hurt to wait so long.

but now we know, the pain was just a day gone by.

Now I know,
Well there's this girl,

Hmmm, hmmm, hmm, hmm,

Repeat and Fade

hmmm, hmmm, hmm,

hmmm, hmmm.
