

Week 10 Agenda

Math 199—Math and the Creative Process: A Participatory Exploration of Number Theory

- Guest Heather Barnes working with us on museum blurbs, and introducing us to her work in math and science communication, museums, and improv
- Receiving feedback on math writeups (will be sent to you by Tuesday night) and revising them...and preparing final presentation
- Completing the last Exercise and Investigations of the quarter

Due this week: “Exercises and Investigations” set 5 on WEDNESDAY, peer feedback on FRIDAY

Due next week: Presentation during exam period (10:15-12:15 WEDNESDAY), final museum blurb and math writeup document due by WEDNESDAY (can turn in THURSDAY instead if you want to incorporate feedback received after presentation)
