

The Mission of EPP is to promote awareness, opportunities and educational experiences concerning environmental policy and planning.

EPP Meeting Minutes – Friday January 11, 2008

Attended by: Matt P, Aaron D, Sara S, Amanda W, Nick K, Kate A

- I. Welcome/Introductions (really, we did)
- II. CASL Winter Event
 - Matt had been in touch with CASL even coordinators to figure out how to get involved. He is still waiting for a response. No one else at the meeting knew anything more. The event is at the end of Jan. and there was discussion about potentially re-evaluating our winter-event. No decision was made as to how to move forward. If you feel strongly about what we should do this winter for our event, please speak up!
- III. Brainstorm of winter meeting activities—Katie M will organize a schedule
 - Movies
 - Could be used as an opportunity to screen films for the John Baldwin Film Festival
 - “Big Ideas for a Small Planet”-20 min. online movies that Amanda watches every Wed. for exactly 2.5 hours. They might make for an interesting discussion.
 - Someone comes to talk to us
 - Steve Mital
 - Someone related to the sustainability committee for the Olympic trials in Eugene
 - Dune Lankard (will be here at the end of the first week in March (for Public Interest Environmental Law Conference)
 - Pizza Potluck—Aaron makes us dough, we all bring ingredients.....and then we feast!
 - Worm workshop by Katie M (we could set up a composter in the basement (hide it in the GTF office)
 - InDesign Workshop-(Ray works with it!)
 - A publishing program for posters/flyers/newsletters/etc
 - Aaron will look into reserving space in the library
 - We could use the time to develop flyers for the Baldwin Film fest AND A NEW LOGO for EPP!

- Bike Workshop—LiveMove will be hosting a workshop in the spring. (Ryan O is a good bike-mechanic contact!)
 - Eugene MT. Film Series—Ryan O’s house (might be good for spring so we can be outside)
 - “Shit Swap”—closer to graduation do a large-scale recycling/clean out house fundraiser!
 - Tour of Bring/Next Step (where we can bring things collected at the Shit Swap for proper disposal)
 - Bike Ride (to a bar....maybe)
- IV. Volunteer Activities
