Practice conversing in German using a variety of activities in different settings. Activities may include reading, viewing films and music videos, role-play, writing poetry, playing board games, and talking about our lives and backgrounds as we get to know each other. Each course is different and will be customized according to students' German abilities and interests.