UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
SCHOOL OF MUSIC AND DANCE

ANNOUNCEMENT

2007-2008 GRADUATE TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS
Fellowships include a full tuition waiver, stipend, and generous health benefits

Past fellowships have been awarded in the following areas:

Athletic Bands                     Music Theory
Brass                             Percussion
Choral Conducting                 Piano Accompaniment
Composition                      Piano Pedagogy
Intermedia Music Technology      Strings
Jazz Studies                      Voice/Opera
Music Education                   Wind Ensemble Conducting
Music History/Ethnomusicology    Woodwinds

Please note: Not all areas award fellowships every year.

QUALIFICATIONS: Admission to a graduate music degree program in the School of Music and Dance, and expertise in the area of the GTF application.

INFORMATION: The University of Oregon School of Music and Dance is one of the oldest and most comprehensive music schools on the West Coast. The school offers a wide range of degrees from the baccalaureate through the doctorate. The total university enrollment is about 20,000 and the Eugene-Springfield area has a population of 250,000, with an unusually active musical and cultural life, including resident symphony orchestra, opera, and ballet companies. The renowned Oregon Bach Festival is a program of the University of Oregon.

DEADLINE: To be assured consideration, candidates should complete their Graduate Teaching Fellowship and admission applications by January 15, 2007. Graduate auditions will be February 10, 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: Information regarding Graduate Teaching Fellowships and application requirements can be downloaded from: http://music.uoregon.edu/Admissions/admingen.html click on the Financial Aid: Music link on the left, OR email gmusadm@uoregon.edu OR call (541) 346-5268.

WHERE TO APPLY: Music Graduate Office, School of Music and Dance 1225 University of Oregon, Eugene, OR 97403-1225

Visit us on the Web at www.uoregon.edu and www.music.uoregon.edu

The University of Oregon is an AA/EO institution, committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.