Jeanne Achterberg will introduce the history of healing with images as well as a summary of the contemporary research and clinical practice in the use of imagery in the fields of health care. She is known for her systematic use of mental images in healing processes. In her book, Imagery in Healing she links her studies of contemporary visualization techniques to their historic roots in Shamanism and in Lightening at the Gate she presents her personal experiences with these techniques.

Contact: CSWS, (541) 346-5015

Sponsored by the Healing Arts Research Interest Group, Center for the Study of Women in Society, and co-sponsored by Religious Studies, Germanic Languages and Scandinavian