ABOUT TONIGHT’S ARTISTS

Wayne Bennett joined the faculty of the University of Oregon School of Music in 1978 as director of the wind ensemble and faculty artist in clarinet. He became director of orchestral activities and conductor of the University Symphony in 1989, and continues to teach clarinet and perform regularly as an orchestral player, soloist, and chamber musician. Bennett was the director and conductor of the Cascade Festival of Music from 1984–1995 and also served as conductor of the Cyprus State Chamber Orchestra and Youth Orchestra in 1991. He has conducted, performed, and taught master classes in Australia, Japan, Hong Kong, Canada, and Mexico, as well as in many parts of the United States. Bennett was the featured clinician for the Australian Band and Orchestra Directors national meeting in Brisbane and presented conducting workshops in Sydney, Melbourne, and Perth as well. He was the recipient of Arts America and Senior Fulbright awards, as well as the Cypriot National Prize for his contributions to the Ministry of Culture while in Cyprus. Bennett is a founding member of College Orchestra Directors Association, served as Western Division President, and is currently on the editorial board for the CODA Journal. He was the first recipient of the PhD degree in music education from North Texas State University and holds a BME degree from Oklahoma State University.

Victor Steinhardt has performed extensively as soloist with orchestras, in solo recitals, and in chamber ensembles. He has been a featured artist at the Oregon Bach Festival, the Mohawk Trails Concerts in Massachusetts, the San Luis Obispo Mozart Festival in California, Chamber Music Northwest in Oregon, and Bargemusic in New York. Steinhardt has collaborated in chamber music with many outstanding musicians, among whom are cellist Leonard Rose, violinists Arnold Steinhardt, Ida Kavafian, Stephanie Chase, and Pamela Frank, clarinetist David Shifrin, flutist Ransom Wilson, and the Penderecki, Peterson, Angeles, Lafayette, and Guarneri String Quartets. Steinhardt’s recordings include David Schiff’s Scenes from Adolescence (Delos), songs of Bartók and Kodály (Vox-Turnabout), and works by Robert Fuchs for viola/violin with piano (Biddulph). As a composer, Steinhardt has received wide acclaim for several of his works. Available from TownHall Records is a new recording of his works entitled Sonata Boogie (THCD-52; orders: 1-800-327-4212).

Leslie Straka is associate professor of viola and chair of the string department at the University of Oregon. She has been a featured artist at chamber music and orchestra festivals throughout the United States and Europe. She received a D.M.A. from Arizona State University and has studied viola with William Magers, Walter Trampler, and Paul Doktor. In 1978, Straka was awarded first place in the Collegiate Artist Competition of the Arizona Music Teachers Association, and was the national first place winner of the 1979 National Federation of Music Clubs Competition. Prior to joining the University of Oregon faculty in 1987, she was an assistant professor at the University of Miami.
