The USA West Coast compact disc release
premiere performance of the chamber jazz album “SNAPSHOT LIVE! Jazz Vibrhphone & Marimba Duo,” cdmUSA Records (manufactured by SONY)
Compositions will be announced from the stage.

PROGRAM NOTES

SNAPSHOT LIVE! Jazz Vibraphone & Marimba Duo cdmUSA Records 105-1 (manufactured by SONY) is a live recording, unedited, straight from the stage to the listener...fresh and real. The duo combination reduces the music to its core: no drums, no bass, and no piano or guitar. Simple melody, harmony, rhythm and texture of the vibes and marimba, bringing a skeletal clarity to the improvisations.

The improvisations of vibraphonist Charles Dowd are born from his recording with avant-garde iconoclast Anthony Braxton, and other “outside” performances with Vinnie Golia and Andrew Hill. Dowd’s jazz also draws upon his drumming with Bobby Hutcherson, David Friedman, Leroy Vinegar, Pablo Cruise (Cory Lerios), and Don Ellis to name just a few. Dowd also plays and conducts the music of Meyer Kupferman, Frank Zappa and John Cage, and is a champion of many 20th and 21st century avant-garde composers. Dowd is a Philip H. Knight professor of music at the University of Oregon School of Music. (Dowd is) “...virtuosic” ... The New York Times

The improvisations of marimbist Tracy Freeze stem from the 20th and 21st century tradition of “classical improvisation” with the music of Meyer Kupferman, William Kraft, Richard Kvistad (Blackearth Percussion Group) and Zappa-esque compositions. Freeze is also an experienced performer and interpreter of the mallet keyboard works of David Friedman & Dave Samuels (Double Image) and the styles of composers Julie Spencer, Mattias Schmitt, Jacob Druckman, John Corigliano, Hans Werner Henze and Ney Rosauro. Freeze is a professor of music at Emporia State University in Kansas. “The best live jazz I have ever heard!”... Luis Alberto, AM Guanajuato newspaper, Mexico

The mix of the two distinctly different styles of Dowd and Freeze bring a wholly unique musicality to the genre of the jazz vibraphone-marimba duo. The duo has recently performed in the midwest USA and Mexico. Future concerts include recitals throughout the USA, in Paris, Berlin, Beijing, Mexico and other cities worldwide. The reductionist art of the vibraphone marimba duo lays bare the immediacy of live performance and the improvised urgency of the moment. While homage is paid to jazz vibists David Friedman, Dave Samuels, Gary Burton, Bobby Hutcherson, Mike Mainieri, Milt Jackson and Cal Tjader, the gestalt is more unique than what Dowd or Freeze would ever produce alone as invididual mallet players. SNAPSHOT LIVE! is a real original duo snapshot.
