ABOUT TONIGHT’S GUEST ARTIST

Deborah Chodacki joined the University of Michigan faculty in 1993. She holds degrees from the Eastman School of Music and Northwestern University. Her clarinet studies were with Stanley Hasty and Robert Marcellus. Chodacki has performed and taught on four continents and throughout the United States. Her performances include chamber music festivals, orchestras, and as soloist with orchestras in the United States and Western Europe, including the North Carolina and Grand Rapids symphony orchestras, the Colorado Philharmonic, the American Chamber Symphony, the Traverse Symphony Orchestra, the Skaneateles and Spoleto festivals, and Monterey Summer Music. Her performances have been broadcast across North America, including live concerto features on NPR’s “Performance Today” series. Students of Chodacki have earned positions in the Philadelphia Orchestra, San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, Kansas City Philharmonic, Winnipeg, Manitoba Symphony Orchestra, Grand Rapids Symphony, Orchestra Nova Scotia, among others. Her students have also won concerto appearances with the Chicago Symphony, Milwaukee Symphony, Columbus Symphony, OH, Grand Rapids Symphony and with conservatory and university orchestras. Prior to her appointment at Michigan she taught at the Interlochen Arts Academy, and from 1979 to 1989, she was on the faculty of the East Carolina University School of Music.
