For thirty-five seasons, The Oregon Percussion Ensemble has performed and championed the classical percussion chamber music of John Cage, Meyer Kupferman, Lou Harrison, Edgard Varèse, Frank Zappa, Steve Reich, Iannis Xenakis, William Kraft, Edison Denisov and many other modern masters. The Oregon Percussion Ensemble records on the Soundspeaks/Albany, record label and has been nominated for the Laurel Leaf Award by the American Composers Alliance in New York City “for distinguished achievement in fostering and encouraging American Music”. Broadcast performance include WGBH Boston, “The Art of the States” heard in 40 countries worldwide, on NPR (National Public Radio), and on network television. The Oregon Percussion Ensemble has been featured twice at Percussive Arts Society International Conventions (PASIC) and the group has performed on tour in Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Jose, Seattle, Boise, Palo Alto, Spokane, Portland and throughout Washington, California, Idaho and Oregon. Members of The Oregon Percussion Ensemble have trained at The Juilliard School, Eastman, New England Conservatory, Manhattan School of Music, Peabody, Paris Conservatory, USC School of Music, Indiana University-Bloomington, University of Illinois, San Francisco Conservatory, San Francisco, and San Jose State Universities, to name a few. Former percussionists from The Oregon Percussion Ensemble perform in the Eugene Symphony Orchestra, in recording studios and concert halls throughout the U.S.A. and in Europe, Mexico and Canada.

Percussionist Charles Dowd is a Philip H. Knight professor of music at the University of Oregon School of Music and principal timpanist of the Eugene Symphony, Oregon Bach Festival Orchestra, Oregon Festival of American Music Orchestra, and Oregon Coast Music Festival. For thirty years he was a principal with the Cabrillo Music Festival in California. He is principal timpanist on the Grammy winning recording Credo by Penderecki with Helmuth Rilling and the Oregon Bach Festival. Dowd's avant-garde percussion music has been broadcast worldwide on WGBH (Boston) “The Art of the States” as well as national broadcasts on NPR. His training includes doctoral residency at The Juilliard School, Lincoln Center, New York with famed New York Philharmonic timpanist Saul Goodman, and a master's degree from Stanford as a student of Anthony J. Cirone of the San Francisco Symphony. Dowd has performed in Carnegie Hall, Wilhelma Theatre in Stuttgart, and recorded regularly at RCA Studios in New York City.

THE UNIVERSITY PERCUSSION ENSEMBLE

The University Percussion Ensemble is one of two classical percussion ensembles at the School of Music. The University Percussion Ensemble is devoted to the performance of standard percussion ensemble repertoire which balances the avantgarde music performed by The Oregon Percussion Ensemble. Percussionists majoring in music perform in both of the two percussion ensembles.

Brian Scott, a member of the Eugene Symphony Orchestra, and performs regularly with the Oregon Symphony, Portland Opera orchestra, Oregon Ballet Theater orchestra, Eugene Opera, Eugene Concert Choir, and the Oregon Mozart Players. He performs with the Ernest Bloch Festival, Cabrillo Music Festival in Santa Cruz, and the Peter Britt Festival orchestra in Jacksonville, Oregon. As a soloist, Scott has performed concertos with both the Eugene and Salem Symphonies, and has been a featured soloist with the Eugene Symphony, Oregon’s Festival of American Music and the Cascade Music Festival. Scott holds teaching positions at Northwest Christian College, Lane Community College and the University of Oregon where he coaches the front ensemble of the Oregon Marching Band. In addition, he is the percussion instructor with the Arts Umbrella organization for which he coaches both the Eugene Youth Symphony and Eugene Junior Orchestra percussion sections and ensembles. His students have won awards and honors not only in Oregon, but throughout the nation. Scott has placed students in some of the nation’s top music colleges and conservatories including The Juilliard School in New York, Manhattan School of Music, Berklee College of Music in Boston, Boston Music Conservatory, San Francisco Conservatory as well as numerous other colleges and universities around the nation.
