ABOUT TONIGHT’S GUEST ARTISTS

Pianist, Hyun-Sook Noh was born in South Korea and studied at the National University in Seoul, receiving a BM in 1975 and MM in 1977. In 1977, she continued her study with Professor Conrad Hansen in Lübeck, Germany, where she completed a DMA with special recognition. During her studies she was awarded first prize at the Possehl competition in Lübeck as a result she has been a guest soloist with the Hamburg Symphony, and various regional orchestras. Currently she is a chamber music member of the Freiburg Philharmonic Orchestra and the South West German Radio Orchestra.

Oboist, Andreas Hölz, was born in Hermeskeil, Germany. He studied with Professor E. Bolz at the Conservatories of Saarbrücken, Professor Christian Schneider in Cologne and completed his studies with renowned oboist, Heinz Holliger in Freiburg. Since1984 he has serve as principal oboist of the Freiburg Philharmonic Orchestra, as well as have been called upon to serve as principal oboe of the Zürich Opera House, Stuttgart Opera and the National Theater in Mannheim and other diverse orchestras and chamber ensembles throughout Germany. Andreas and his wife Hyun Sook Noh are the very proud parents of their son, Max Hölz, who has been a wonderfully, inspiring addition to the University of Oregon Oboe studio this past year.
