Recording of UO concerts and events without prior permission is prohibited.
Performances sponsored by the UO School of Music and Dance are sometimes video recorded and photographed for a variety of uses, including both live simulcast and digital archive on the UO website, or for publicity and publications. Images of audience members may be included in these recordings and photos. By attending this event, audience members imply approval for the use of their image by the UO and the School of Music and Dance.
The UO Gospel Singers is an elite group of singers from Choir and Ensemble with a strong background in the tradition of Black gospel music. They have become a national gospel powerhouse in recent years having won national gospel choir competitions, including back to back first place honors at the national Disney Gospel Choir Fest in Orlando, FL in 2010 and 2011.

Under Andiel Brown’s direction, the UO Top Gospel Singers made world history in March 2013 by becoming the first gospel act ever to make a public performance tour of The People’s Republic of China. They held 15 performances throughout China, including a special joint concert with the premiere Chinese choral choir, The Qingdao Teachers Choir, at the Qingdao Grand Theater.
