in St. Petersburg," the Gnessin Academy of Music in Moscow, and the Double Reed Festival of Tokyo. In addition, he performed at several IDRS international conferences including Buenos Aires, Banff, Rotterdam, Frankfurt, and Melbourne. Fink toured with the Arctic Chamber Orchestra (Fairbanks) throughout Alaska and China and was concerto soloist in the South Bohemia Music Festival in the Czech Republic. He has performed and presented master classes at many college and university campuses including Texas, Arizona State, Georgia, Iowa, Michigan, Cornell, University of Chicago, Western Illinois, Indiana, Alaska-Fairbanks, and the University of North Carolina Greensboro.

Fink’s research interests include editing music by Russian composers of the 20th century (Asaf’ev, Sviridov, Okunov, Dranishnikova), as well as editing unpublished works for oboe d’amore (Pfeiffer and Foerster) and arranging concertos for oboe and band (Hummel and Pasculli). He has been featured in two educational videos produced by the UW-Madison Continuing Education in the Arts, “The Oboe, Starting Right” and “Developing Woodwind Ensembles.” Fink is principal oboist of the Madison Symphony Orchestra and recently performed at the Token Creek Festival, the Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival, and the Banff International Youth Orchestra Festival. Fink holds a Bachelor of Music Education and Master of Music (Oboe) degrees from Indiana University where he studied with Jerry Sirucek. He was awarded the Performer’s Certificate by that institution. He also pursued doctoral studies at Northwestern University as a student of Ray Still and studied chamber music with Marcel Moyse in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Sandy Holder was raised in Louisville KY where she studied piano and voice at the Youth Performing Arts High School. She began her career as a freelance pianist at age 14 and was awarded a scholarship at 16 from the University of Kentucky to study with David Doran. She received a Bachelor of Music degree from the Oberlin Conservatory where her teacher was Russian pianist Lidia Frumkin. After moving to Eugene in 1989, Sandy completed a Master of Music at the University of Oregon where she studied with pianist/composer Victor Steinhardt. Sandy has worked with the Eugene Symphony, Eugene Opera, Oregon Symphony, Van Ummersen Dance Company, Eugene Children’s Choirs, Oregon Festival of American Music, Oregon Mozart Players, and the Oregon Bach Festival as well as performing numerous recitals and Lane Community College and the University of Oregon. An avid supporter of new music, Sandy has also performed in Eugene’s Music Today Festival, conferences of the American Musicological Society and the College Music Society, the Millennial Marathon Concert, and the Seventh Species Concert Series. Sandy is also a private piano instructor and an award-winning folk singer/songwriter.
