ABOUT TONIGHT’S GUEST FACULTY ARTIST

Fritz Gearhart joined the University of Oregon string faculty in 1998, teaching violin and chamber music and performing regularly with the Oregon String Quartet. Gearhart received his master’s degree and the prestigious Performer’s Certificate from the Eastman School of Music, where he studied with Donald Weilerstein. His earlier studies were at the Hartt School of Music, where he worked with Charles Tregre and members of the Emerson Quartet. He has performed in major concert halls around the country, including Alice Tully Hall, Carnegie Recital Hall, and the 92nd Street Y, as well as the Terrace Theater at the Kennedy Center. Prior to his appointment at the University of Oregon, Gearhart was first violinist of the Chester String Quartet, which was widely acclaimed by the press and singled out as a highlight of the 1989 American String Quartet Congress. Gearhart has been heard frequently on public radio, including live broadcasts featured on WFMT Chicago, WQXR New York, and NPR’s “Performance Today.” He has recorded nine compact discs, including The Complete Works for Violin by Robert Casadesus and Oregon Festival of American Music Presents: William Grant Still, released in 2001 and 2002, respectively. Most recently, Gearhart worked with the Oregon String Quartet to complete their newest recording: The Oregon String Quartet and All That Jazz, Jazz Influences in the Contemporary American String Quartet, now available on the Koch Entertainment label.
