ABOUT TONIGHT'S ARTISTS

The Oregon String Quartet, formed in 1982, is composed of four faculty members from the University of Oregon School of Music. Committed to excellence in Performance and Music Education, the Quartet members each teach the undergraduate and graduate students in the School of Music and guide the string program together to create an unusually cohesive department with an exciting and vibrant atmosphere. The quartet performs regularly in the Pacific Northwest in addition to their other appearances around the country. The members of the quartet bring together a wide range of musical experience including years of chamber music collaborations with world-renowned artists.

Trio Pacifica was formed in the fall of 1993 with its premier at the University of Oregon School of Music. Since then the trio has performed throughout the Pacific Northwest and in Wyoming, Hawaii, and Taiwan. Winners of a prestigious Aaron Copland grant in 1999, Trio Pacifica released its first CD on the CRI label in spring 2000, featuring works of American composer Jon Deak.
