

BI 199 MARINE HABITATS OF THE OREGON COAST

1 credit P/NP

April 17 and 18, 2010

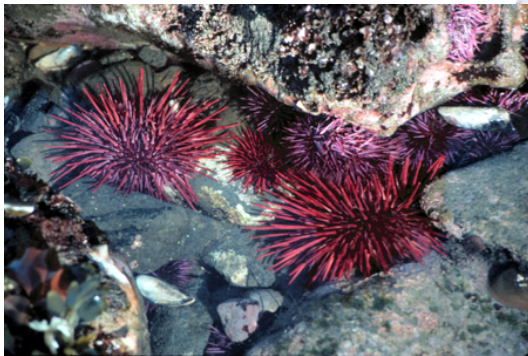

The class is designed for marine biology, biology or environmental studies/science freshman or sophomores, or others thinking of spending a term at OIMB

Low tide field trips to study animals and plants in their habitats

Opportunities to observe live animals

An introduction to courses and research conducted at OIMB

An overnight stay and meals at OIMB

DETAILS

Class meets Saturday and Sunday April 17 and 18, 2010 at OIMB. A bus leaves Oregon Hall at 8am Saturday to transport students to OIMB, housing and meals are provided, and the bus returns to Oregon Hall by 6pm Sunday. Students should bring a sleeping bag, pillow, rain gear, a flashlight, and boots or sacrificial sneakers.

Field Trip Fee: $50

For OIMB info: www.uoregon.edu/~oimb

Questions? Contact oimb@uoregon.edu