

Psychology 388
Human Sexual Behavior
Summer 1987

Instructor: Dr. S. Hamilton
Office: 325 Straub Hall
Phone: x4921

Office Hours: 1:00-2:00 Wednesday

Note: Dr. Hamilton is also available by appointment.

Readings: Crooks, R., and Baur, K., (1987) Our Sexuality, California: Benjamin/Cummings Publishing Company, Inc. This text is available at the University of Oregon Bookstore.

Requirements: Each student is required to complete three in-class exams. Exams will generally consist of objective items. Students are responsible for all information presented by the text, readings assigned in class, speakers, lectures, and films. There is no final exam.

Make-up Exams: Make-up exams will not be given unless there is a documented legal or medical excuse on professional stationery. Dr. Hamilton reserves the right to verify all excuses by telephone. Students in this situation will take an essay exam. Although the same grading standards will be applied to essay exams, please be aware that the equating of standards is necessarily subjective.

Incompletes: In accordance with university policy, incompletes will not be given unless a contract is negotiated and submitted to the Registrar prior to the last day of class. Otherwise, completed work will constitute the total points (even though there is missing work), and will likely result in a less than passing grade.
