Class Blackboard site: There is a blackboard website for this class. You should be able to find it by going to the following address: blackboard.uoregon.edu. You will need a username and password to access this website. This information should have already arrived in your email. If you are having any difficulties using this site, there are personnel who can help you in the Knight Library ITC (Information Technology Center) as well as the Science Library.

Textbook: Cognition: Exploring the Science of the Mind,
by Daniel Reisberg. Norton Publishing Company.

Quizzes: There will be 4 quizzes and no final exam.
The quizzes will be worth 50% of your final grade.

Term Paper:

The term paper will be worth 25% of your final grade. The specific details of the term paper assignment (length, topic, and due date) will be announced within the first two weeks of the course.

Class Participation:

In-class participation will be worth 25% of your final grade. This will include at least two short presentations in class.

Course Evaluation: Quizzes will cover material from class and readings distributed on the blackboard site. It is important to attend lectures to do well in this course.

Readings, schedules etc. will be posted on the blackboard site.
