

Time: Wed 4:00-4:50 PM

Place: 257 Straub Hall

Professor: Lou Moses, 427 Straub, 346-4918, moses@uoregon.edu

Office hours: Wednesdays 1-2 or by appointment

COURSE OBJECTIVES: During Spring term we will focus on bringing the honors projects to fruition: writing, analysis, poster presentations, oral presentations, thesis completion. Regular attendance and participation in discussion are crucial.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE COURSE: There are three course requirements this term:

- 1) Regular attendance and participation
- 2) Oral presentation of thesis findings in class
- 3) Poster presentation of thesis at our annual celebration of undergraduate achievement

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

WEEK 2, April 6: Writing Up the Thesis

WEEKS 3-5, April 13-27: Drop-in Data Analysis Sessions in 427 Straub (Optional)

WEEK 6, May 4: What Makes a Good Poster?

WEEK 7, May 11: Thesis Presentations

WEEK 8, May 18: Thesis Presentations

WEEK 9, May 25: Thesis Presentations

WEEK 9, May 26 (3-5pm): Honors Poster Session

WEEK 10, June 1: Thesis Presentations