The council discussed the proposal and had the following suggestions:

- The council would encourage a dialogue between PPPM and other departments to broaden the potential of the minor.
- Provide further elaboration of the proposal to include descriptions of the required and elective courses and also prerequisites for both.
- Are the courses offered in this minor accessible to other students on campus?

The council voted unanimously in favor of the proposal.