University of Oregon Undergraduate Conference
Saturday, May 18th, 2013

The University of Oregon Undergraduate Philosophy Club invites any interested undergrad students of philosophy to showcase their talents by submitting a paper to present in our upcoming annual conference. This conference will provide a forum for philosophical discussion, a place to present your work amongst peers in the Philosophy program here at the U of O.

The conference will be held on Saturday, May 18th in the EMU Walnut Room from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

From now until the 1st of May we will be accepting titles and abstracts (< 300 words) for the paper you wish to present. The focus of the paper will be entirely left up to you to decide. An order will be selected based on the themes of the submitted papers. Presentations should be between 30-45 minutes, followed by questions and discussion. You may elect to simply read the paper, paraphrase it, or give a talk using PowerPoint or an available whiteboard/chalkboard. If you wish to have additional time allotted for presentation let us know along with your submission and we will do our best to accommodate.

The paper should:

- Be no more than 3,000 words, or approximately 10 pages
- Include a cover page
- Include any works cited, you may choose to use endnotes or footnotes
- Must be submitted electronically
