The University of Oregon and Portland

A Strategic Partnership

Linda Brady
Senior Vice President and Provost
The UO and Portland: A Strategic Partnership

A History of Portland Presence

1884—Law School
1887—Medical School
1914—School of Commerce and Industrial Survey
1993—Joint UO-PSU graduate architecture program
2006—Turnbull Center, Journalism and Communication
2008—A New Home for UO Portland
UO Students and Alumni

Top 10 Feeder High Schools, Fall 2006

¥ Sunset
¥ Churchill (Eugene)
¥ South Eugene
¥ West Linn
¥ Beaverton
¥ Tigard
¥ Lincoln
¥ Westview
¥ Southridge
¥ Grant
Site Overview
Through a partnership with Venerable Properties the UO has an 18 year master lease on the White Stag with an option to purchase in 2016.

Fletcher, Farr, Ayotte Architects along with Bremik Construction are providing the vision and skill required to transform the White Stag to meet the needs of the University of Oregon.
Examples of Portland Presence

¥ AHA International
¥ Center for Applied Second Language Studies
¥ Oregon Executive MBA
¥ UO Libraries
¥ College of Education
¥ UO Career Center
¥ Continuing Education
¥ Master’s in Applied Information Management

¥ Project Alliance
¥ Labor Education Research Center
¥ School of Journalism and Communication
¥ School of Law
¥ School of Architecture and Allied Arts
¥ Energy Studies in Buildings Laboratory
Criteria for Portland Program Delivery and Development

- Consistent with institutional mission within AAU
- Build on strengths and niches within OUS
- Sound business plan and financial support within UO
- Add unique benefit to the student experience
- Serve region through education, research and outreach
- Enhance public, private and community partnerships
Architecture & Allied Arts

¥ Architecture:
Oregon’s only accredited program, graduate and undergraduate
— Urban architecture
— Housing innovation and sustainable building practices
— Historic preservation

¥ Arts and Arts Administration
School of Journalism and Communication
George S. Turnbull
Portland Center

￥ Serves students and professionals in Portland and Eugene
￥ $9+ million raised
￥ Seniors spend term in residence
￥ Professional Master's in Strategic Communication
The UO and Portland: A Strategic Partnership

Lundquist College of Business

Oregon Executive MBA (OEMBA)
—University of Oregon degree offered in partnership with OSU and PSU
—Hispanic Metro Chamber of Commerce
—New Venture Championship