

UO Women in Graduate Science

is now accepting applications for Undergraduate Student participation in

JUMP!

(Joint Undergraduate-Graduate Mentorship Program)

*Individualized professional, academic, and research development

*Open to students of any gender in any science major:
Chem, Bio, Biochem, Psych, Physics, Geology, etc.

*Directed, personal mentorship from graduate students

*Commitment of at least 6 hr/quarter w/meetings

Further information & application materials are available on our website: pages.uoregon.edu/jump

Applications are due Friday, October 6th at 3pm

The University of Oregon Women in Graduate Science (UOWGS) focuses on the professional development of women in all disciplines of science.

Speakers. Scholarships. Socials. Community Outreach.
Inspiration. Support.

Come Join Us to Learn More

This program seeks to enhance the development of Undergrads in Science through direct involvement with Graduate student mentors.

What JUMP offers: lab introductions, networking and enhanced communication skills, resume building, graduate applications etc.

What JUMP is not: tutoring, MCAT/GRE prep, class scheduling, etc.