ABOUT TODAY'S FACULTY ARTIST

Lydia Van Dreel, Assistant Professor of Horn, received her MM from The Juilliard School in 1993 and her bachelor's from the University of Wisconsin in 1991, both degrees in Horn Performance. Before coming to UO, she was adjunct professor of horn at Manatee Community College, Florida. Ms. Van Dreel has been co-principal horn for the Florida West Coast Symphony since 1996, and has performed in many professional and festival orchestras, including the Colorado Music Festival, on Broadway, and in opera productions in the U.S. and Europe.
