The University of Oregon Tuba/Euphonium Ensemble ("Teuph") provides an opportunity for students who are seriously undertaking the study of the tuba and the euphonium to acquaint the concert-going public with a beautiful sounding ensemble and a growing repertoire of new material, original works, and "ear opening" transcriptions of popular concert favorites. Since the Fall of 2001 the University of Oregon Tuba/Euphonium Ensemble has engaged in approximately 10 performances annually. The ensemble has given concerts throughout Oregon and Washington, including performances at the Oregon Symphony Orchestra "Concert Prelude" series (Portland), the 2009 Oregon Music Educator's Conference (Eugene), 2009 Music Educators National Conference's "All-Northwest" Conference (Spokane), and the 2010 International Tuba and Euphonium Conference (ITEC) (Tucson). Teuph has been invited to perform at the 2013 Northwest Regional ITEC on the campus of Washington State University (Pullman).

Performances sponsored by the UO School of Music and Dance are sometimes video recorded and photographed for a variety of uses, including both live simulcast and digital archive on the UO website, or for publicity and publications. Images of audience members may be included in these recordings and photos. By attending this event, audience members imply approval for the use of their image by the UO and the School of Music and Dance.

The plywood paneling on the lower walls of Beall Hall is temporary. It is part of ongoing testing to improve the acoustics for larger ensembles. The panels were added on the recommendation of professional acousticians who are helping the staff in their ongoing attempts to improve the experience of our audience.
