ABOUT TONIGHT'S ARTIST

The Oregon Wind Quintet is a faculty chamber music group in residence at the University of Oregon. The group has performed throughout the state, including appearances at conferences, schools, and in recitals. The current membership of the group is new as of 2008 with the appointment of flutist Molly Barth to the faculty. In collaboration with UO faculty pianist Alexandre Dossin, the OWQ performs as the HammerWinds ensemble and presents a rich repertoire of works for piano and winds. Highlights of the 2008-2009 season include residencies at schools in Corvallis, Eugene, and Salem, performances at the gala openings of the UO-Portland Center at the White Stag Block and the expanded MarAbel B. Frohnmayer School of Music and Dance, and recitals at the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art and Beall Hall.
