ABOUT TONIGHT'S GUEST ARTIST

Rob Davis is a graduate of the University of Washington with degrees in music performance and education. Over the years he has crafted many influences into a uniquely identifiable sound and style. While living in Seattle he performed and recorded with the likes of Jay Thomas, the Jim Knapp Orchestra, the Seattle Repertory Jazz Orchestra and Matthew Jorgensen +451. Currently Davis resides in Portland where his tenor saxophone can be heard to full advantage with guitarist John Stowell, ensembles of David Friesen, the Bobby Torres Ensemble, PDXV and on recordings by Randy Porter and Alan Jones. Davis has also been heard at Northwest festivals and concerts playing with orchestras led by Ray Charles, Bob Florence and Gerald Wilson.
