ABOUT TONIGHT'S GUEST ARTIST

Nat Wickham is professor of trombone and euphonium at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley, where he is also director of the UNC Trombone Choir and chair of the brass and percussion department. Wickham is a versatile performer and experienced teacher. His work as a classical and jazz artist, recording artist, clinician, and adjudicator has led to performances throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. Currently, Wickham is principal trombonist in the Greeley Philharmonic Orchestra and trombonist with the Rocky Mountain Brass Quintet and the UNC Faculty Jazz Quintet. He appears frequently as guest solo artist with bands and jazz bands at colleges and universities throughout the country. For six years Wickham was lead trombonist and jazz soloist in the Bob Curnow Big Band, performing with the Brazilian jazz group Deasfinado for three years, and has been leader of his own jazz groups. He has played lead trombone with the Woody Herman Orchestra, Natalie Cole, and the Nelson Riddle Orchestra, among others. Wickham is a trombone specialist for the International Association of Jazz Education (IAJE) Resource Team. He has performed at IAJE Conferences in New Orleans, Anaheim, Atlanta, and Chicago.
