In July 2017 the Chamber Choir will be embarking on a tour of Spain, including concerts in Madrid, Toledo, Montserrat, and Barcelona. The tour culminates with performances at the World Symposium on Choral Music in Barcelona, where the Chamber Choir will serve as the demonstration group for their conductor's interest session on the role an understanding of the brain can play in designing engaging rehearsal techniques.

In 2014 the Chamber Choir became a resident ensemble at the Oregon Bach Festival, performing each summer under the direction of Matthew Halls and Helmuth Rilling. In addition, they have performed at state and divisional conferences for the American Choral Directors Association and the National Association for Music Education.

The University of Oregon Chamber Choir is a highly select mixed chamber ensemble of 32 voices specializing in a cappella repertoire from the sixteenth through twenty-first centuries. Members range from sophomores through graduate students with excellent sight-reading skills and vocal ability.

The Chamber Choir has garnered international acclaim in recent years. In May, 2015, the Chamber Choir was one of 10 choirs worldwide invited to compete at the 14th International Chamber Choir Competition in Marktoberdorf, Germany, where they received second prize overall, won a special prize for the best interpretation of the compulsory work, and were the only student group to achieve a Level I recognition for an “excellent performance at the international level.” Following the competition, they were honored to serve as the rehearsal choir for the International Masterclass for Choral Conductors at the Bavarian Music Academy under the leadership of Volker Hempfling (Germany) and Jonathan Velasco (Philippines).
