It was decided that Mr. B.E. Spencer's language be accepted, and that he be admitted to Senior standing.

That the case of Dr. S.C. Spencer be deferred until his record has been investigated further by the committee.

That the case of Miss Alice Rickel be referred back to the committee.

That Mr. J.W. Knowles be notified that the faculty cannot act until he has conformed to the rules regarding schedule changes.

That Mr. John J. Hansbaken be allowed entrance to the Senior class and to graduate on the basis of the course in the catalogue of '74-'75, provided he conforms to the requirements of that course.

It was decided in the cases of Mr. A. Edwards and Mr. David Lofeffe that they be referred to the President in pursuance of his action in the matter; and that, excepting the case of Mr. Palmer, this shall not be considered a precedent.

That the case of Dr. H. Manchesbe be referred back to committee.

That Mr. E. T. Smith be required to present to the head of the department of physics a satisfactory statement from his teacher regarding his physics.

The following names of students were admitted to Senior standing:

Miss Harriette Warfield, James Wold, George Wold, H. L. Whitteberry, Chas. O. Wagner, E. T. Van Dyke, C. E. Stanton, Roy R. Holley.

Faculty met in Prof. Young's room, at call of the President. Business before Faculty:

Senior Records:

Petition by J. T. Carroll, asking that he be allowed to take an examination in Physiology, missed at the regular examination period on account of conflict, was granted.

Petition by Miss Henshaw, warfield, to the effect that she be allowed to take examinations on work done during the first term; was granted—her absence at the regular examination period being necessitated by serious illness in her family.

It was also decided upon recommendation of Professor Condon, that Miss Faith Johnson, Mr. E. S. Crawford and Mr. E. A. Clark be allowed to take their examinations in geology.
Your committee finds the following students short on credit as designated below:

Sweet, Hartford——-2

(credits for 2 yrs. Greek yet to be allowed)

Pickel, Adela—— will lack at the end of this year 47 credits, we find her deficient in the following required subjects of her Group 13, 55, 103 or 155, 177, 1, 2. She has recorded to her credit 65 credits and has on this year's schedule 18 credits.

Spencer, W. V.,——-55 lacking. We can find only 36 entrance credits, 17 on card recorded, and 22 on schedule, making a total 75. We herewith submit his own statement of his case.

L. L. Goodrich has sufficient number of credits, but lacks required course 103.

E. N. McArthur lacks credits in physics.

J. R. Spencer has the following deficiencies in group required studies, Group 9 courses 103, 155, 143.

Bernard Jakway has credits and required except in his course.

J. Smith has credits and required except of Huller. Has credit and required subjects of 4, 7, 13.

J. Enright is not an applicant for senior class and Bernard has not yet fulfilled with conditions for A.A. Respectfully submitted, George Silley
