Israel

I was a resident of Israel on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I have accepted an invitation by the U.S. government (or by a political subdivision or local authority thereof), or by a university or other recognized educational institution in the U.S., to come to the U.S. for a period not expected to exceed two years for the purpose of teaching or engaging in research at The University of Oregon, which is a recognized educational institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

The teaching compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and Israel. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under this treaty for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date specified in the next paragraph.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching or research services for which the exemption is claimed]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of two years beginning on that date.
