I was a resident of _____ [insert the name of the country under whose treaty you claim exemption] on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I am temporarily present in the United States for the purpose of teaching or carrying on research at the University of Oregon, which is a recognized educational or research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the general interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.

The teaching or research compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) for these activities qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and _____ [insert the name of the country under whose treaty you claim exemption]. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.

I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning teaching or research services for which exemption is claimed]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received as a teacher or researcher for a period of two years beginning on that date. In no event have I claimed an exemption under this treaty for income received as a teacher or researcher for more than two years.
