All donors will receive a gift-in-kind acknowledgment from the University for tax purposes. Donors may also receive an acknowledgment from the UO Foundation indicating a credit to the donor's Foundation record. The University unit accepting the gift is encouraged to send the donor a thank you note but should not issue a gift acknowledgment. In compliance with IRS restrictions, the University and/or its employees will not provide a donor with an appraisal or estimated value of the gift.

The University cannot guarantee donor confidentiality for gifts-in-kind. If your donor would like to make an anonymous gift, the gift must be made to the UO Foundation. Please contact the Foundation's Gift Services team at giftservices@uofoundation.org or call 541.302.0337 for assistance.

Please email completed form to jritz@uoregon.edu or send to Financial Services, Thompson's University Center and retain copy in department.
