FERPA and Authorized Payers

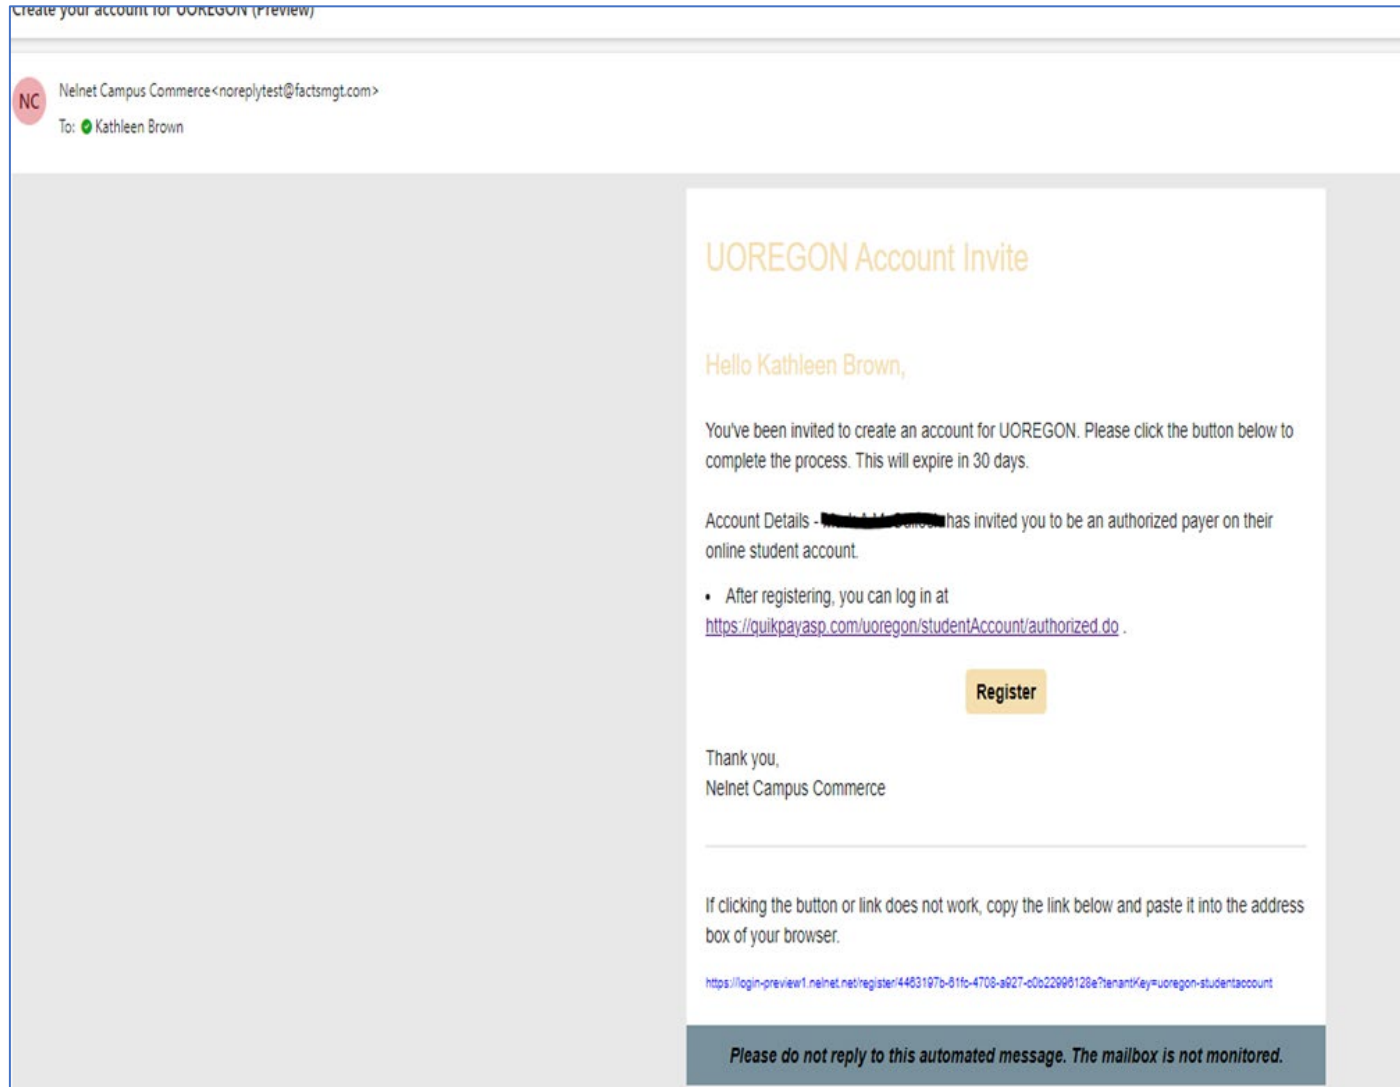

Student billing information is protected by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which means your student must set you up as an Authorized Payer for you to:

- ✓ Receive notifications that billing statements are available
- ✓ Log in to QuikPAY and view billing statements, balances, and payments
- ✓ Pay a portion of your student's billing account
- ✓ Receive detailed answers about your student's account should you call or email the Student Billing team

Become an Authorized Payer

- ✓ Ask your student to log in to My UO and set you up as an Authorized Payer
 - ✓ They will need your email address
 - ✓ They can add up to 5 Authorized Payers
- ✓ You will receive an email invitation from Nelnet
 - ✓ You will have 30 days to set up your unique login credentials
- ✓ You can set up secure payment profiles to make future payments quick and easy
- ✓ Refer to the Money Matters handout in your packet for detailed instructions
