

Give a Little

Learn a Lot • Service-Learning Classes • FALL 2014

- Earn Academic Credit
- Get Experience
- Build Community Connections

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
College of Education

SERVICE-LEARNING PROGRAM

GET OUT AND KEEP GROWING! Service-Learning classes are open to all students!

Small classes combine academics with a volunteer component (30 hours of service in the community = 1 credit).

You choose the social issue you are passionate about and identify a community partner to host you.

We can help with either or both of these.

- The Schoolhouse Garden CRN 12405
- Service-Learning: Theory and Practice for ARP
(Academic Residential Program) CRNs 17048/12401*
- Early Childhood Services CRNs 12395/12406*
- K–12 Education CRNs 12369 or 12388/12402*
- Human Services CRNs 12370 or 12389/12400*
- Fundraising CRN 17049 NEW!
- Outdoor School CRN 12397

* To register for Service-Learning classes in DuckWeb search Subject "SERV"

* Enroll by registering for the seminar (FHS 407) and for a practicum (FHS 409)

For more information:

service-learning.uoregon.edu • servicelearning@uoregon.edu • 541-346-8285 •  Service.Learning.UO

An equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. ©2014 University of Oregon COE 0414D52921