The Oregon Jazz Ensemble (OJE) is the premier large jazz ensemble at the University of Oregon. This group's reputation for innovative programming and excellence in performance is underlined by the numerous awards bestowed upon its members - collectively and individually - over recent years. Under the direction of Steve Owen, the Oregon Jazz Ensemble and its students have garnered 15 Downbeat Magazine awards as of late including a 2016 Graduate College Ensemble Outstanding Performance Award. Additionally, OJE has been selected the Outstanding College Jazz Ensemble at the Reno Jazz Festival each year that they have participated over the past sixteen years (including 22 festival-wide awards for U.O. students as Outstanding College Performers at Reno).

Three recent OJE students have made appearances at international competitions - Josh Hettwer (semi-finalist at the 2014 North America Saxophone Alliance Jazz Competition, Tony Glausi (finalist at the 2013 and winner at the 2014 National Trumpet Competition in jazz, 1st prize in the 2017 Carmine Caruso International Jazz Solo Competition), and Matt Hettwer (winner at the 2015 International Trombone Association Carl Fontana Competition).

Recognized throughout the nation and internationally for its excellence in interpretation and performance of the wide variety of styles of music associated with the jazz genre, the Oregon Jazz Ensemble regularly performs new literature for jazz ensemble including works by internationally renowned composers/arrangers as well as students of the UO jazz program. In addition to its concerts on campus, the OJE is a frequent performer at jazz festivals and educational conferences, including the Vienne Jazz Festival, Montreux Jazz Festival, La Spezia Jazz Festival, Umbria Jazz Festival, International Association of Jazz Educators Conference, Oregon Music Educators Conference, the Northwest MENC Conference, Western International Band Conference, Kent-Meridian Jazz Festival, Reno Jazz Festival, Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, and the Seattle Jazz Experience as well as numerous other musical events in the Pacific Northwest.
