Week of Welcome

2012 UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
Welcome to the University of Oregon! Fall is an exciting time for all of us at the UO as we gear up for the new school year and welcome new students. To introduce you to our campus community, we offer activities before classes begin that let you check out the university’s array of resources, meet new people, and make new friends. We call this event Week of Welcome (WOW).

During WOW you discover how to get involved in activities that enhance your academic career and support your personal interests. You learn how to take advantage of such resources as the university’s academic learning services, computing services, employment opportunities, health services, and more.

And the week would not be complete without participating in a number of social events and outdoor activities. Two of the events you certainly won’t want to miss:

InterMingle on Friday, September 21, offers you great food, casino games, live music, and much more in the Erb Memorial Union.

Convocation on Sunday, September 23, is the University’s traditional welcome to new students on the University of Oregon campus! A warm welcome to all incoming students who we wish great success in the upcoming fall term! Our newly appointed UO President Michael Gottfredson will be our featured speaker and is excited to meet you. Gottfredson has served as executive vice-chancellor and provost and professor of Criminology, Law and Society at the University of California at Irvine since 2000. Among the many accomplishments during his tenure at UC-Irvine, Gottfredson led efforts to significantly grow enrollment, add new faculty, degree programs, facilities, schools, and departments.

Convocation is set for 3:30 p.m. on the Sunday before fall term classes begin and will take place at Matthew Knight Arena on the UO campus. Doors open at 3:00 p.m.

See You at WOW!

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION Recognized internationally for its high academic standards, the University of Oregon attracts students from around the world to study and conduct research. Last year, more than 2,000 students from eighty countries attended the university—about 8 percent of the student body. International students enrich the campus environment and provide many intercultural learning opportunities inside and outside the classroom. International Student Orientation (ISO) meets the special needs of new international students and supplements Week of Welcome activities. The orientation begins Wednesday, September 12, 2012, and continues through Week of Welcome. The ISO Hospitality Table on the first floor of Oregon Hall runs from September 4 through 12. For more information, pick up a program at the Office of International Affairs, 330 Oregon Hall, 541-346-3206, or visit the website, international.uoregon.edu/index.php/students/orientation.

NOT YOUR TRADITIONAL DUCK? THERE’S A UO FOR ALL OF US
Walnut Room, Erb Memorial Union
Do you feel older than other students? Are you raising children? Are you a veteran? Do you work full-time? Are you returning to college after a break? Are you balancing multiple responsibilities in addition to being a student? If you said yes to any of these questions, then you may be a nontraditional student.

If you identify as a nontraditional student, you and your family are invited to network with other nontraditional students at this informational session designed specially for you. Have your questions answered by a panel of current nontraditional students who will share information about campus resources and provide tips for navigating the UO while balancing other responsibilities. Following this session, participate in a personalized campus tour and resource scavenger hunt with stops specifically of interest to nontraditional students. Children welcome!

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS INFORMATION TABLE
Concourse, Erb Memorial Union
This past year, Oregon once again saw many of its teams and athletes advance to postseason play and earn numerous All-Pac-12 and All-American honors. The inaugural Pac-12 champion football squad defeated Wisconsin in the postseason for the Ducks’ first Rose Bowl victory in ninety-five years. Acrobatics and tumbling won the inaugural National Collegiate Acrobatics and Tumbling Association national championship. The women’s track-and-field team won their third straight National Collegiate Athletic Association indoor national championship. Our success on the playing field is due in part to the tremendous support from our fans and surrounding community. Autzen Stadium is nationally recognized as one of the loudest and most intimidating atmospheres in the country. Duck fans have also celebrated the opening of Matthew Knight Arena by continuing the McArthur Court tradition of being one of the loudest arenas in the country. As a new UO student, we want to make sure that you become part of our growing fan base, so stop by to learn more about Oregon athletics, facilities, or how to get tickets. See you there!

UNIVERSITY COUNSELING AND TESTING CENTER
OPEN HOUSE
University Health, Counseling, and Testing Center Building
Come by the University Counseling and Testing Center anytime from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to learn more about all of the services available to you as a UO student. You do not need to step off campus to see a doctor, counselor, group counselor, nurse practitioner, physical therapist, nutritionist, pharmacist, dentist, nurse, diabetic educator, or athletic trainer. In addition, we have stress-management classes, massage, a lab, sleep classes, x-ray services, and a pharmacy where you may fill new or existing prescriptions and purchase over-the-counter items. We have free items, too—condoms, lube, dams, and finger cots. Help us celebrate the UO’s smoke-and-tobacco-free campus. If you are struggling with your cessation efforts, we have free nicotine replacement products (gum or patches) to help you quit. Our peer health educators are available to lead you on a scavenger hunt through the Counseling and Testing Center, where you will collect giveaways and have the opportunity to ask questions. Our staff will be tabling outside, so stop by and ask questions or participate in a hula-hoop contest. Join the fun, check us out, and learn about your University Health Center and University Counseling and Testing Center. See you then.

For more information, visit our websites: healthcenter.uoregon.edu and counseling.uoregon.edu.

10:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.
INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS INFORMATION TABLE
Concourse, Erb Memorial Union
This past year, Oregon once again saw many of its teams and athletes advance to postseason play and earn numerous All-Pac-12 and All-American honors. Women’s basketball had the largest crowd in Pac-12 and Oregon history in the new Matthew Knight Arena. The Pac-12 champion football squad went to the Rose Bowl game and finished number three in the nation. Baseball advanced to the super regionals only four seasons after its reinstatement.
Our success on the playing field is due in part to the tremendous achievements in the country. Ducks fans have also celebrated the opening of Matthew Knight Arena by continuing the McArthur Court tradition of being one of the loudest arenas in the country. We want to make sure that you, as a new UO student, become part of our growing fan base, so stop by to learn more about Oregon athletics, facilities, or how to get tickets. See you there!

10:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.
COMPUTING SERVICES ON CAMPUS
Concourse, Erb Memorial Union
Visit us for free antivirus software (it.uoregon.edu/duckware), get your e-mail account set up, get your laptop on the wireless network,

BUSINESS AFFAIRS OPEN HOUSE AND DEMONSTRATIONS
135 Oregon Hall
Student Billing will conduct QuikPay demonstrations on Thursday and Friday to inform students and parents of our billing process.
These demonstrations will run approximately thirty minutes and start at 9:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 3:30 p.m. Students and parents will get a brief overview of the billing process and view QuikPay online, followed by a question-and-answer period.
Assistance will be available for students to establish authorized payments on their student account. The Business Affairs office will provide a table in front of Oregon Hall during the Oregon Hall open house on Friday, 10:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. Direct deposit enrollment forms as well as information on student billing, direct deposits, and scholarships will be provided. Staff members will be available at the table to answer questions.

68 Prince Lucien Campbell Hall
• How can I get a tutor?
• Who could possibly get through all these textbooks?
• Where does all my time go?
• What should I do to prepare for exams?

The University Teaching and Learning Center (TLC) has many resources to help students succeed academically. Come and tour our office and tutoring labs so you know where to go when you have these and other questions. TLC also houses several support programs for qualifying students: PathwayOregon, the Undergraduate Support Program, and two Trio programs (Student Support Services and McNair Scholars Program). More information is just a click, call, or visit away: tlc.uoregon.edu, 541-346-3226, 68 Prince Lucien Campbell Hall.

We often hear students say, “If only I had known about TLC earlier!” Don’t have regrets: make the most of your UO education and get connected now!

12:30—2:00 p.m.  WILD DUCK ELECTROMAGNETIC CARBONIC ACID TEST EXTRAVAGANZA
Science Library, Onyx Bridge
Come see your friendly neighborhood spider fangs magnified 20,000 times; watch chemicals melt and boil simultaneously and then freeze at the flick of a finger. Experience light you can’t see, quantum phenomena in action, and possible energy sources for the future. Run your fingers along the bones of Oregon’s ancient wildlife. And watch—live—as we create volcanic eruptions that shoot soda to the roof. Did we mention free pizza and Coke?—Mentos included!

1:00—2:15 p.m.  BUDGETING, MONEY MANAGEMENT, AND OTHER TIPS FOR SURVIVING COLLEGE
Metolus and Owyhee Room, Erb Memorial Union

Welcome to the 2012 Convocation that formally kicks off the new academic year at the University of Oregon. Meet newly appointed UO President Michael Gottfredson!

Gottfredson has served as executive vice-chancellor and provost and professor of Criminology, Law and Society at the University of California at Irvine since 2000.

Among the many accomplishments during his tenure at UC-Irvine, Gottfredson led efforts to significantly grow enrollment, add new faculty, degree programs, facilities, schools, and departments.

In addition, he led a major expansion of the UC-Irvine infrastructure, blending state, campus and private support. He helped to create the California Institute for Telecommunications and Technology, including the construction of a $55 million research facility, and the new public law school.

He is also known for substantially increasing representation of women and under-represented minority faculty and administrators; and for his extensive work to enhance the undergraduate experience within a large research university.

The convocation will take place at the Matthew Knight Arena on the University of Oregon campus. Doors will open at 3:00 p.m.

University Fellowship

Church made simple

Biblical | Authentic | Hospitable | Generous | Diverse | Simple

Sundays | 10am
South Eugene High School | 19th & Pearl
(If you need a ride, meet at 9:45 by the lit sign on the corner of 19th and University)

The free pasta at University Fellowship is a church that meets for worship on Sunday evenings at 10am in the South Eugene High School Gym. If you show up, you’ll find good coffee, a casual atmosphere, friendly people of all ages, other college students and (optionally) a plate you can feel comfortable what you’re away from home. Above all, it’s a place that celebrates the things that connect us — the things that we have in common, the things that build us up, and the things that inspire and sustain us. To learn more, visit our website at www.universityfellowship.com or facebook.com/universityfellowship. Or send an email to snorkel@gmail.com.
